Ahoy Volunteers!

Please join us for an exciting event that will help area students stay in school and graduate on time. The Charleston Yacht Affair, benefitting Communities In Schools of the Charleston Area, takes place on Sunday, May 22 from 5:30 to 9:00 PM on the MegaDock at the Charleston City Marina, 17 Lockwood Drive. Volunteers are needed to help set-up/clean-up, assist patrons on and off yachts, answer questions, serve food, direct parking, and perform other event duties.

Communities In Schools (CIS) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit dropout prevention program, serving nearly 6,400 at-risk children in 15 Charleston County and 2 Berkeley County public schools. Our nationally accredited organization surrounds students with a community of support, empowering them to stay in school and achieve in life. CIS Charleston is a part of the CIS National organization that has nearly 200 affiliates across the U.S. According to a recent five-year study, the CIS stay-in-school model is the most effective dropout prevention program in America.

Volunteers...please note:

- Arrive no later than 3:30 PM for the first shift and no later than 6:30 PM for the second shift (see shift details below).
- On the day of the event, volunteers will receive a t-shirt to be worn throughout the evening. Please wear khaki or white slacks/pants or appropriate length shorts or skirt.
- You may not wear leather sole shoes on the yachts; please wear tennis shoes or boat shoes (shoes that are not slippery if wet!).
- Complimentary parking will be available for volunteers in The City Marina parking lot.
