

Ahoy Yacht Owners!

You're invited to be part of an exciting Charleston event and help area students stay in school. Please join us for The Charleston Yacht Affair, to benefit Communities In Schools of the Charleston Area. The Charleston Yacht Affair will take place Sunday, May 22, 2011 from 5:30 to 9:00 p.m. on the Mega Dock at the City Marina, 17 Lockwood Drive. Measuring 1,530 feet in length, the Mega Dock is home to the East Coast's most exclusive yachts and provides a perfect and memorable setting for The Charleston Yacht Affair.

Communities In Schools (CIS) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit dropout prevention agency whose mission is to surround students with a community of support, empowering them to stay in school and achieve in life. The overarching goal of CIS is that all students complete high school. Affiliated with the 34-year-old Communities In Schools-National, CIS opened in 1989. A unique collaboration with the Charleston and Berkeley County School Districts allows CIS Student Support Specialists to work within schools where they can respond to the needs of children and their families as they arise. Worth magazine has twice recognized CIS-National as one of the 100 charities that will save the world. During the 2010-2011 School Year, CIS Charleston will provide Student Support Services to more than 6,300 children attending 17 schools in Charleston and Berkeley Counties.

Communities In Schools will:

- List each yacht owner as a major participant of The Charleston Yacht Affair in press releases issued to the broadcast and print media.
- Feature each participating yacht in the official event program.
- Provide each yacht owner with two complimentary tickets to the event.
- Provide each yacht owner with a complementary official event burgee to commemorate your participation.

The Yacht Owner will:

- Provide use of their yacht for exclusive tours for approximately 200 guests at The Charleston Yacht Affair on Sunday, May 22, 2011, during the yacht hopping time period of 5:30 to 8:00 p.m.
- Allow food prepared in advance off-site to be served by professional chefs to event patrons
- Provide a description and photo of the yacht for the event program
